MACA Lions Athletic News

MIAC Fall Playoffs

We are excited to announce that ALL of MACA's Fall Sports teams have advanced to the MIAC Semifinals.

MACA's Varsity Volleyball team won 3-0 over Perry Hall Christian on Tuesday to move on to Saturday's Semifinals at Maryland School for the Deaf where they will take on Redeemer at 11:00 AM. A win in the semifinal would place the Lady Lions in the MIAC Championship game on Saturday at 2:00 PM at Maryland School for the Deaf.

Our JV Volleyball team will take on Greater Grace on Thursday at 4:00 PM at MACA on the JV Volleyball Semifinal. A victory would place the girls in the MIAC JV Championship game on Saturday at 12:30 PM at Maryland School for the Deaf.

MACA's MS Volleyball team won 2-0 over New Life on Tuesday and will travel to Maryland School for the Deaf on Thursday at 4:00 PM for the MIAC MS Western Division Semifinal. With a win, the girls will face the East Division Champion in Saturday's Final at Maryland School for the Deaf at 12:30 PM.

MACA's Varsity Boys Soccer team defeated Open Bible 9-0 on Tuesday in the MIAC Quarterfinals and will face Redeemer in Thursday's semifinal matchup at Western Regional Park at 4:00 PM.

MACA's MS Soccer team defeated Banner School 4-1 and will travel to Trinity School in Frederick on Thursday for a 4:00 PM start.

Both soccer teams will be playing to advance to Friday's MIAC Soccer Championship games being held at Cedar Lane Park in Bel Air. The MS Championship game takes place at 5:00 PM. with the Varsity Championship game to follow at 7:00 PM.

We look forward to cheering on all of our teams as they make their run through the MIAC Playoffs! GO LIONS!!
